FOR PRESIDENT,
 That uncrowned King of every Democratic heart,

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
 Mr. Tilden's companion in Victory and in Humiliation,

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Richard Reid, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Hargis—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

The other day at Louisville, Lilly Langtry lost her dog and Freddie was not there to hunt it up. Poor dog.

Several dead men are drawing pensions at Watertown, N. Y. Commissioner Dudley will see that they are properly punished.

Prof. J. H. Tice, astronomer, electrician, weather prophet, and almanac-maker in St. Louis, last Friday, aged seventy-three.

An Indian chief recently made application to the Government for a piece of artillery, remarking: "Me no want to kill soldier; me kill cow boy."

Mr. Carlisle, of Kentucky, who is to be Speaker of the Forty-Eighth Congress, has a high reputation as a man of intellect, and is remarkable in Congress for the force of his statements.—[Commercial Gazette.]

In way of murders, Cincinnati is about to make Lancaster and Harrodsburg ashamed of themselves. It is now considered a very cold and unfavorable night in Cincinnati when she fails to furnish two first-class murders.

WALLACE GRUELLE says, in Nashville, a female diamond thief has been arrested who sails under the various names of Rose Miller, Rose Myers, Rose Lincks, Rose Flinks, etc. She is a Rose who evidently imagines that she is sweet under any name.

It would neither be just or constitutional for the functions of the National Government be made to collect special taxes from distillers and disburse the same equally between the States. What justice would there be in making the distillers of Kentucky pay the expenses of the State Government of Vermont?

A MAN has been convicted of murder in Mercer county. The jury evidently based the verdict on a misconception of the charge against the accused. This mistake, of course, will be rectified by the court of appeals on the technicality that Mercer county murderers are consigned to congress instead of the penitentiary.

A NORTH CAROLINA youth bargained to work a year for a shot gun and a girl. The term of his service expired and his master gave him the gun, but when it came to girl he was unable to deliver the goods. Her heart was in another's keeping and she declined to transfer her organic and anatomical self minus her heart.

ALL of the thirteen New Yorkers who sat down to dinner on November 13th, 1884, to defy superstition, again dined together on Tuesday evening, November 13th. On the left of each guest's plate was a gravestone bearing the wine list, upon it's right a coffin with the dinner list, on it, while the ghastly spectacle was illuminated by thirteen black candles.

Just as we expected: Sergeant Mason has gone into the show business—having hired himself out as curiosity to a Pittsburg showman. He and Sergeant Bates, who is now lecturing in Southern Kentucky, ought to combine and form a national boring association. There are so many such characters loose, that the fool-kipper can't attend to his business profitably without more assistance. We vote that he be reinforced.

When a husband refuses to pay his wife's store bill he must be able to show to the satisfaction of a jury that he has provided her with funds enough to suitably maintain herself in the station to which she is accustomed. If he cannot make such a showing the bills can be collected from his estate, notwithstanding he has given notice that he will pay off debts of her contracting. Such is a recent legal decision of a New Jersey Court.

MR. L. D. CARDWELL, editor of the Mercer Enterprise, published at Harrodsburg, Ky., finding that his extensive Drug and Book business needs his personal attention, has concluded to dispose of his paper. It is one of his most prosperous Journals in the State, is equipped with all the modern machinery, including Folder, Engine, Cylinder and Job Presses. It is the only paper published in the town of 3,000 population, and a live man can do well to correspond with Mr. Cardwell.

The New Speaker.

HON. JOHN G. CARLISLE was nominated candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives in the 48th National Congress, by the Democratic caucus in Washington, Saturday night, on the first ballot. The vote stood Carlisle 105, Randall 52, Cox 31.

Mr. Carlisle is too well known for a word of eulogy or commendation from us—suffice it to say that he is the right man in the right place. He's just the very man that the Democracy of the Union wanted there by an overwhelming majority, and one that the Republicans did not want, although they sarcastically predicted that with his elevation to the Speakership would be the downfall of the Democratic party. We'll see about that later. The issue of high and low protective tariff had to come. In fact, it was destined to be the only issue between the parties in '84, and the fight had just as well begin now as any time. In congress we have a fine majority, and it is there that we'll first route the enemy from his stronghold. We are to have the South and West arrayed against the East, representing the free people against a band of bondholders, manufacturers, monopolists and political tyrants with the forced aid of their pauper employees. Both parties will now go to work in earnest. It will be high tariff against low tariff, or, in other words, monopoly against anti-monopoly, or high taxation against low taxation.

A Bold, Influential Paper.

[Saturday (Greensburg, Ind.) Review.]
 Jas. K. Ewing Esq., was over in Grant County Kentucky last Saturday and spent last Sunday and Monday in Bourbon. He saw the late Mr. Carnes, and he and Col. Scobey took his depositions in a case. Mr. Ewing says public opinion is changing in Kentucky as to the right of man to take the life of his neighbor. He thinks it is well it is changing. He gives the credit of the change to the efforts of a Paris newspaper, called the BOURBON NEWS.

O'DONNELL, the slayer of Cary, the Irish informer, has been found guilty, and will be executed at Newgate.

Millersburg (War) Department.

A pretty flower of fashion,
 A very charming girl;
 A dear, delightful creature,
 With hair in bang and curl;
 A real bird of beauty,
 In pink and white and blue;
 A maiden rare, endowed with
 Not sense enough for two.

Miss Lizzie Taylor is visiting in Lexington.

Willie Bedford is now the center of attraction in Florida.

Esq. Joe Will Miller is confined to his bed with rheumatism.

May be somebody knows why Aunt Charity Brown has no eggs for sale.

Entertainments each evening during Christmas week at Bryan's Colored Hall.

Frank Speith sued Mike Thornton yesterday for $2,000 damages, for shooting him through the arm.

Chas. Clarke leaves for the West on a prospecting tour next week. He will be accompanied by James M. Collier.

"Snib" Batterton will be at home Christmas. He has resigned his position in Cincinnati and will accept one in New York.

Tom Browning, of Sardis, Ky., formerly a student of the K. W. C., will engage in business with Willie Victor, on and after Jan. 1st.

Oscar Johnson left Saturday for Kansas City, with a load of Short-horn bulls, for Long and Ferguson, and will be gone three or four weeks.

The public square fence is about to be finished; when completed, we'll illuminate and shoot off powder and make a joyful noise unto the city council.

The Chief of Police must not get too many seal brown tastes in his mouth. One who expects to keep others orderly should not himself become boisterous and a painter of noses.

Among other innocent pastimes engaged in here Thanksgiving day, was a turkey shooting and a pleasant little game of "square" poker. Both passed off quietly and all of the money in risk remained in Millersburg.

There is a city ordinance requiring property holders to construct and keep in repair, sidewalks in front of their lots. This is inserted because no one would be able to tell from the condition of the streets that the law existed.

Tom Hall was up on a business trip from Florida. He has gone into partnership with an exiled Polish count (2) in Orlando, and says he will make fifty thousand dollars in two years. Doubtless then the count (2) will have the experience.

The ladies of the Christian Church will give a literary and musical entertainment, on Thursday evening, the 20th inst. Prof. Bristow and his string band of forty young ladies will furnish the music, and Prof. Turner, of North Middletown, will preside over the literary department.

Several silly old she fools are having a fine time abusing the head of the department. They spend most of their time at their church suppers, in this social way. As soon as the pretext is offered they will be spoken of as accomplished and bewitching; then their old shriveled faces will be wreathed in smiles.

The Presbyterians foisted a measly candy pulling off on an unsuspecting public last Thursday evening and got all of the young people so besmeared with candy several of them stuck closely together until late at night, and then parted only after much tribulation. Too much can not be said in condemnation of a substance that will make young people so friendly, even though it contains no "love powders."

"B'ER B'AR."

In New Jersey when a man uses a revolver in taking up a collection for charitable purposes, his occupation tax is assessed at ninety-nine years in the penitentiary.

SUNDAY was the anniversary of the coronation of Napoleon I., the battle of Austerlitz and the hanging of John Brown. The latter event was twenty-four years ago.

The people of Bourbon are getting tired of cold, clammy news items, and are showing their appreciation of boldly expressed opinions and live locals, and are fairly booming the News with new subscribers daily rolling in.

RANDALL was in favor of the repeal of the tax on whisky and tobacco, because he was in favor of keeping up the present high tariff in the interest of Pennsylvania monopolists. Mr. Randall's opinion will now have but a small following, since the great caucus.

KENTUCKY carried off nearly everything Saturday night. Bonns sons of Kentucky actually captured the four principal ones, viz.: Carlisle, Speake; Gen. Clark, Clerk; Jim Wintersmith, Doorkeeper, and Lycurgus Dalton, Postmaster.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, not being satisfied with being a tool for Randall, sent its editor to Washington to do the dirty work against his neighbor, Carlisle. This probably accounts for the Waterloo defeat of Randall and the consequent downfall of the monopolied money power. It has got to come, and it may come soon.
